Grade: 12
Level: Honors/College Prep/Resource

Assignment: As you are reading your choice book this summer, it is strongly suggested that you annotate or take notes. You should also identify significant quotes that would help support each response. There will be a variety of graded formative assessment activities upon your return to school based on your reading of the novel and the completion of this assignment.

Due Date: You MUST bring this assignment on the FIRST day of school.

Note: Honors: 2 Books (one required/one self-selected)
College Prep/Resource: 1 Book (self-selected)

Directions: Answer the following questions as you reflect on the book you selected to read from the Book Choice List. Be sure to elaborate your response with a minimum of 5 sentences for each question.

Note to Honors Students: Honors level students must complete this assignment for both the required text and your self-selected book.

Assessment: You will receive a grade for your completion of the summer reading assignment which will be categorized as a supportive assessment. You MUST bring this assignment on the FIRST day of school

(Note: You will have the opportunity to conference with your English teacher to review your responses and answer questions you may have about this assignment prior to submitting it for a grade.)

In-class assignments related to Summer Reading will be graded and categorized as formative assessments.
2019 Summer Reading Assignment – Due the First Day of School

(Note: You will have the opportunity to conference with your English teacher to review your responses and answer questions you may have about this assignment prior to submitting it for a grade.)

1. What challenges and setbacks does the protagonist face throughout the novel? A protagonist is defined as the major character in the book.

2. How does the protagonist grow and develop throughout the book? What are the lessons that the protagonist learns about him/herself and the world around him/her?

3. Identify one theme and how it develops throughout the novel. A theme is defined as the main idea, underlying meaning, or recurring idea in the text.

4. Where else have you seen your chosen theme develop? You may consider other books, movies, and real life. Be sure to cite specific examples to support your answer.