“The privilege we have in this country to borrow books from our public libraries is quite wonderful, really. It empowers all of us to keep on learning and exploring throughout our lives. That’s very special, because life is all about growing, changing and opening ourselves up to new ideas and information.”

~Elizabeth Taylor

Budget Cuts

Due to cuts to the library's operating budget again this year, the library is instituting a few changes, which will take effect starting January 2, 2013.

- The library will close one hour earlier, at 8:00 p.m., Monday–Thursday.
- The library will be closed on Sundays during the summer months, from Memorial Day to Labor Day.
- The library will now charge a $1.00 DVD rental fee on all DVD's checked out.

These changes will lessen the burden that recent cuts have placed on the library's operating budget. These were not easy decisions for the Library Board and Director to make, but after three years of significant cuts to the budget, it was finally necessary to take action.

The Library Board of Trustees and library staff appreciates your understanding during these difficult times.
