MARGARET E. HEGGAN FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY NEWSLETTER

FOOD for FINES

Support your local community and have your library fines forgiven too!

From Wednesday, November 12, through Wednesday, November 26, the Margaret E. Heggan Free Public Library invites you to help Mother's Cupboard by donating sealed, non-perishable food items in lieu of paying library fines.

Fines up to $5.00 per library card will be forgiven in exchange for a food donation.

Each item donated will forgive $1.00 in fines. Fees for lost library cards, lost or damaged library materials, and processing fees for lost or damaged library materials will not be forgiven.

All donated items will be given to Mother's Cupboard in Washington Township.

All food donations are welcome during this time — whether you have a library fine or not.

Sharks in the Library

Art teacher Amanda Brewer didn't plan on becoming an international celebrity when Brewer will share her knowledge and experiences at the Heggan Library in Washington Township on Monday, November 10, at 7:00 p.m.

A life-long passion for sharks drew Brewer to South Africa. While most people find sharks terrifying, Brewer describes them as beautiful, graceful and intelligent. She has started a foundation, Shark-servation, which will partner young people with scientists to research marine life.

Photographs from her trip will be on display in the library's gallery.

she went to South Africa to volunteer with White Shark Africa, an eco-tourism and animal conservation organization, but one photo she shared online went viral and put her in the spotlight.

This program is free and open to all ages. Advance online or phone registration is required. Please go to EVENTS at www.hegganlibrary.org or call 856-589-3334 to register.

Kid's Corner

The Philadelphia Zoo on Wheels will visit the library with live animals on Wednesday, November 5. They will present Tiny Tots for children ages 1-3 at 10:15 a.m. At 11:00 a.m., they will present Built to Survive for children ages 4-11.

Lego League will have a sorting party on Thursday, November 6, at 1:15 p.m. Children ages 7-11 can join us to sort and organize Legos for future sessions. A snack will be provided.

Mr. Malcolm will present Pocahontas on Saturday, November 22, at 10:30 a.m. for children ages 3-6.

It wouldn't be Thanksgiving without our favorite Tummy Yummies treat – Apple Turkeys – on the 26th.

And of course, there are so many other activities planned including Baby Time Rhymes, Block Party, Toddler Time, Puzzle Play, Legos, Book Buddies, RU Curious, Like 2 Learn, Parachute Fun, Bingo, Toddler Art, Dress to Mess, and a PJ Story Time.

Advance registration is required for children's programs. Registration is limited to Heggan Library cardholders. To register, go to EVENTS at www.hegganlibrary.org.

Snapshot Day

October 1 was Library Snapshot Day, a day when libraries across the state took photos and kept statistics of a typical day in the library.

In one day at the Heggan Library:

- 420 people entered the library.
- 5 new library cards were issued.
- 561 items were checked out.
- 146 individuals used the computers.
- 45 reference questions were

Library shelfer Tim Cone was chosen for the Caught in the Act Award. Tim was nominated by a patron who wrote, "Tim helps me find everything I need every time I come to the library."

Congratulations, Tim!

Systems Librarian Sergio Ragno has been selected to participate in the NJ Library Association's Emerging Leaders Program along with 24 other librarians who are new to the profession. This was a statewide, competitive process to be included as part of this program.

I am happy that Sergio will be representing our library and our community on the state level.

Congratulations, Sergio!
