Library Application

Instructions

1. Fill out the library card application form below.
2. Bring in your identification along with the form into the library to get your card and library information packet. There is a list of accepted forms of identification on the library website under “How do I . . .” and then “Get a Library Card.”
3. If you are signing your children up for cards, bring them into the library when getting their cards.
4. Children need to be three years old to get their own library card.
5. Children’s names and birthdates can be added to your library card application.
6. Adults 18 and over must show their own proof of residency in order to get a library card.
