Share the Moment

Share the special moments of your life. Celebrate birthdays, anniversaries, graduations and accomplishments by donating a book or other material to the Margaret E. Heggan Free Public Library. You can express your appreciation and support of the library while recognizing these occasions.

Share the Memory

Donating a book or other material in memory of someone you wish to honor is a beautiful way to say “I remember.” Pay tribute to the memory of a relative, friend or associate in this way and library users will benefit from your thoughtfulness

Birthday Book Club

Celebrate a child’s birthday by donating a book or other material appropriate to the child’s age. What a special way to say “Happy Birthday” to a youngster you care about. We will notify the child of the donation so that he or she can be the first to borrow the material.

Gifts & Memorial Donation Program

We invite you to honor family members, friends and associates with a lasting gift of books or other library materials to the Margaret E. Heggan Free Public Library.

- For a donation of $25 or more a new acquisition will be added to our collection. You may designate a specific subject area and type of material you prefer—a book, audiobook, or DVD—or let us select an appropriate item.
- Each new item added to the library’s collection will receive a commemorative bookplate with the name of the person honored and the donor listed. We will notify the individual or family that you designate about your gift. The amount of all gifts remains confidential. If you would like to participate, please look at the possibilities on the opposite page and complete the form on the reverse. Please ask us for any additional information about gifts and memorials.
