CELEBRATING OUR 45TH ANNIVERSARY

Celebrate National Library Week and Create your own story @ your library®

Libraries are places for new beginnings. Whether you are getting your first library card, learning new computer skills or planning a trip, the library is the place where your story begins. This National Library Week, join our nation’s libraries and librarians and Create your own story @ your library.

First sponsored in 1958, National Library Week is a national observance sponsored by the American Library Association (ALA) and libraries across the country each April.

In celebration of National Library Week, the Margaret E. Heggan Free Public Library and LOGICAL, a group of eight Gloucester County libraries, will host the fourth annual “Meet the Authors” event. More than 36 local authors will be on hand to discuss and sell their books. Authors of children’s books, young adult books, history, fiction, poetry, NJ history, and many more will be present.

“Meet the Authors” will be held on Wednesday, April 13, from 6:30-8:30 p.m. at the Free Public Library of Monroe Township, 713 Marsha Ave., in Williamstown.

Win a tour of the new library

Library staff get their first look at the new library.

One lucky family of four will win a “Behind the Scenes Tour” of the new library before it opens to the public!

Entry forms are available on the check-out counter or you can enter online at www.hegganlibrary.org. Contest ends April 28. Winner will be selected in a random drawing on Friday, April 29. Winner will be notified by phone.

We’re Moving

The time is almost here when the library will close one chapter and begin a new one.

The library will be closing on May 2. We will be closed for about a month while everything is moved and set up in the new library.

Customers will be able to access the library’s website for updates, photos, and information about the move and re-opening. Customers can also receive updates via Facebook and Twitter. All of the library’s online resources will still be available while the library is closed.

Library materials that are due during this period must be returned to the book drop located in the front of the new library.

Please see page 2 for a list of libraries where you can use your Heggan Library card.

Kid's Corner

Mr. Malcolm will visit the library on April 4th to present "Winnie the Pooh & Other Great Tales."

Children can make a Bunny Box on April 11th-14th.

There are Book Buddies

and reader Time programs planned.

Kids ages 7-11 can make an Earth Day Necklace during Story Crafters on the 13th.

Please see the calendar on page 4 for program times, dates, and ages.

Go to the calendar on our website to register for these programs.

With a tradition that spans more than 150 years, baseball has long been a way for parents and children, grandparents and grandkids to bond across generations. Connect with your family this summer at the library and enter Step Up to the Plate @ your library. You could win a trip to the Baseball Hall of Fame!

www.atyourlibrary.org/baseball for more information.

Please visit these other LOGIN libraries during the time the Margaret Heggan Library is closed.

National Poetry Month

April is National Poetry Month, a month-long celebration designed to increase the visibility of poetry and poets in our culture.

Pick up a poem for your pocket from the check-out desk during April for "Poem in your Pocket Day," April 14.

Governor Christie signs Municipal Library Tax Law

This is not a new tax. It does not result in any increased taxes, but now the minimum library appropriation will be displayed on your tax bill.

Library funding is a very small part of your tax bill. Now you will be able to see exactly how much you are paying for library services, the same way the Fire and School District, and County taxes are shown.

Most will agree, the library is a bargain.
