The library welcomes Ms. Pilling

The library is pleased to welcome Barbara S. Pilling, our new Teen Librarian.

Ms. Pilling earned a BA in English and French from Elmira College in NY, an MA in English Literature from Rutgers University in Camden, and an MA in School and Public Librarianship from Rowan University. She has taught at Salem High School and worked in school libraries. She recently worked at the Mount Laurel Library.

Ms. Pilling is looking forward to working with the teens and tweens at the library and partnering with the schools.
