DIRECTOR'S CORNER

We are pleased to welcome Madison
Beard to the library as a PT Library Assistant. Madison earned a Bachelor of Arts from Stockton University and majored in Historical Studies. As a student, she completed internships at Firmenich Incorporated and at the South Jersey Culture & History Center. She is considering a future career in libraries.

Madison is pictured with State Librarian Jennifer R. Nelson on her first day on the job. Ms. Nelson was visiting libraries in Southern NJ that day.

HAPPY 55th ANNIVERSARY

to the

Margaret E. Heggan Free Public Library!

Did you know the library opened its doors on March 2, 1966?

We've come a long way since then. From our small beginnings using books donated from the people in the community, to several locations, and a name change, we're pleased to be here fifty-five years later serving our patrons. Check out our display case across from the reference desk .

ART AT THE LIBRARY

Monday, November 29
6:30 - 8:00 pm

Come join us for a relaxing evening of art in the library. We will paint with a fall themed exercise following a brief instruction on the basics of painting with watercolors. We will provide the paints, brushes, and paper. Beginners and masters alike are welcome!

Open to adult cardholders only. Advance online registration is required.

HEGGAN HAPPENINGS

MARGARET E. HEGGAN FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY NEWSLETTER

FOOD FOR FINES!

Support your local community and have your library fines forgiven too!

For the entire month of November, the library will forgive book fines up to $10 per library card. Each non-perishable food item donated will forgive $1.00 in book fines. All donated items will be given to Mother's Cupboard in Washington Township. All food donations are welcome at the library during this month, whether you have a fine or not.

Please call the library at 856-589-3334 for more information.

AUTHOR VISIT

Join author Melissa R. Klapper on Tuesday, December 7, 2021 at 7:00 pm in the library. She will be here to discuss her book and have copies available for purchase.

Dr. Melissa R. Klapper is a Professor of History and Director of Women's & Gender Studies at Rowan University. She is the award-winning author of multiple books, including, most recently, Ballet Class: An American History (Oxford University Press, 2020).

The library will be raffling off four tickets to a performance of The Nutcracker scheduled for December 18 at 2pm at the Scottish Rite Theater in Collingswood, NJ.

You can enter the raffle by visiting the library.

ACCEPTING BOOK DONATIONS!

The Friends of the Library is pleased to announce as of November 1, they will accept used books to be sold in the Friends' bookstore.

They accept books, DVDs and Blu-rays in good condition. There are two bins located just outside the Friends' Bookstore for your convenience.

ART GALLERY

Stop by the art gallery located in the front hallway of the library to see some amazing artwork.
