MARGARET E. HEGGAN FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY NEWSLETTER

What's New @ the library?

The library is debuting a new website this month. We think you'll find it easy to navigate and appealing to the eye.

In conjunction with our new website, we have begun using a new online event calendar. Registering for programs should be easy with this new calendar. Of course, if you have any problems registering, the library staff will be happy to assist you.

A new program for tweens has been added. Tweens ages 9-12 are sure to enjoy the Tweens Cooking Club, which will meet for the first time on September 30.

Watch for improvements to the library's front entrance this fall. We will be making the library more accessible.

Get your Geek on @ the library

The Margaret E. Heggan Free Public Library is participating in Geek the Library, a community-based public awareness campaign. The campaign highlights what people are passionate about, and how libraries can help them pursue their interests. Geek the Library introduces 'geek' as a verb, and encourages the public to talk about what they geek.

As the economy slowly recovers, millions of Americans are turning to local libraries for educational opportunities, job-searching resources and entertainment. The increased demand for library services is taking a toll on libraries already experiencing flat or decreasing budgets. And state and local cuts are impacting library hours, programs and staffing.

Starting in September, the Margaret Heggan Library will be raising community awareness at many local events, as well as in the library. We will be partnering with local businesses and organizations to encourage community involvement.

A Launch Party to introduce the community to the campaign is planned for Thursday, September 12, at 6:00 p.m. A photographer will be on hand to take photos to be used on campaign posters.

Through Geek the Library, the library hopes to start a conversation about library funding to inspire more people to take personal responsibility for keeping their local public library vital in their communities.

This campaign was developed by OCLC, a non-profit library cooperative, with funding from the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.

The campaign website, www.geekthelibrary.org, provides information about how people can get active and support their library.

Kid's Corner

So many fun things are planned for children in the library this month.

The start of the school year means the return of Book Buddies, a weekly program to introduce 3-5 year olds to books and encourage a life-long love of reading.

Many events are also planned for infants and toddlers.

On Saturday, September 28th, children ages 3-6 will enjoy "The Alphabet Song," presented by a local author and illustrator.

Don't forget to wear your PJs to our PJ Storytime on the 30th.

Throughout the month we will also have fun with puzzles, parachutes, legos, art, bingo, food, and much more.

Please see the calendar on page 4 for program dates, times and ages.

To register, go to the calendar at www.hegganlibrary.org.

Go Back to School with the Most Important School Supply

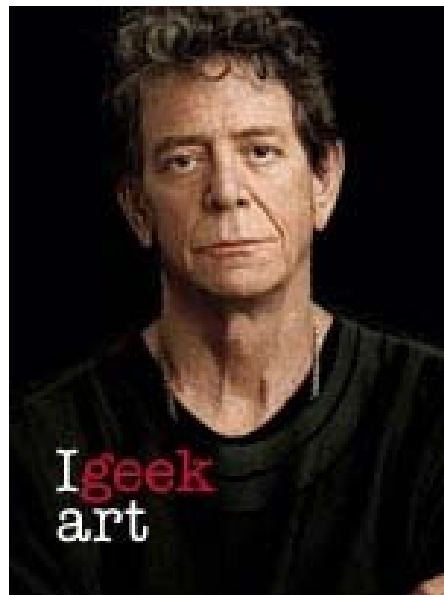

September is Library Card Sign-Up Month, a time to remind parents, teachers, and children that a library card is the most important school supply of all.

Studies show that children who are read to in the home, and who use the library, perform better in school and are more likely to continue to use the library as a source of lifelong learning.

The library works to ensure that materials are available for students' research projects and homework assignments. The library's Reference Librarians are always available to help with research. The library also has many databases available at the library or from home with a library card.

And, the library is open evenings and weekends, when school libraries are closed.

The library will be open on Sundays from 12:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., beginning September 8th.
