NEW BOOKS WE LOVE IN THE LIBRARY!

This Is a Book to Read with a Worm
(J 592 WHEELER TOPPEN)

Written by Jodi Wheeler-Toppin and illustrated by Margaret McCartney

The 2021 AAAS/Subaru Prize for Excellence in Science Books winner in the “Hands-On Science Book” category.

This book is fun to read even WITHOUT a worm friend, but having one around (and treating it with gentle respect) will make checking out this title an unforgettable experience for any young scientist.

Out of Nowhere
(ER NAYLOR BALLESTEROS)

Written and illustrated by Chris Naylor-Ballesteros

Our narrator, Beetle, starts off his story by saying, “Once, I had a friend. She arrived out of nowhere one day.” Beetle’s friend is a caterpillar – and one day, his friend disappears.
Where could she have gone?
What had happened to her?
Beetle is determined to find out – and he finds out that friends stay friends, even if they change, as Beetle says, “a little bit.”

Charlie & Mouse Outdoors
(JF Snyder)

Written by Laurel Snyder
and illustrated by
Emily Hughes

We’re always on the lookout for excellent early chapter books, and you can’t get much better than Charlie & Mouse. Charlie & Mouse Outdoors is the fourth book in the series, and it finds the brothers having an imagination-fueled adventure in the woods, with the help of their supportive and loving parents. These are the perfect books for young readers who have only just moved beyond leveled read-alones, and are looking for a bit more challenge.
